

Over dit boek

Dit is een digitale kopie van een boek dat al generaties lang op bibliotheekplanken heeft gestaan, maar nu zorgvuldig is gescand door Google. Dat doen we omdat we alle boeken ter wereld online beschikbaar willen maken.

Dit boek is zo oud dat het auteursrecht erop is verlopen, zodat het boek nu deel uitmaakt van het publieke domein. Een boek dat tot het publieke domein behoort, is een boek dat nooit onder het auteursrecht is gevallen, of waarvan de wettelijke auteursrechttermijn is verlopen. Het kan per land verschillen of een boek tot het publieke domein behoort. Boeken in het publieke domein zijn een stem uit het verleden. Ze vormen een bron van geschiedenis, cultuur en kennis die anders moeilijk te verkrijgen zou zijn.

Aantekeningen, opmerkingen en andere kanttekeningen die in het origineel stonden, worden weergegeven in dit bestand, als herinnering aan de lange reis die het boek heeft gemaakt van uitgever naar bibliotheek, en uiteindelijk naar u.

Richtlijnen voor gebruik

Google werkt samen met bibliotheken om materiaal uit het publieke domein te digitaliseren, zodat het voor iedereen beschikbaar wordt. Boeken uit het publieke domein behoren toe aan het publiek; wij bewaren ze alleen. Dit is echter een kostbaar proces. Om deze dienst te kunnen blijven leveren, hebben we maatregelen genomen om misbruik door commerciële partijen te voorkomen, zoals het plaatsen van technische beperkingen op automatisch zoeken.

Verder vragen we u het volgende:

- + Gebruik de bestanden alleen voor niet-commerciële doeleinden We hebben Zoeken naar boeken met Google ontworpen voor gebruik door individuen. We vragen u deze bestanden alleen te gebruiken voor persoonlijke en niet-commerciële doeleinden.
- + Voer geen geautomatiseerde zoekopdrachten uit Stuur geen geautomatiseerde zoekopdrachten naar het systeem van Google. Als u onderzoek doet naar computervertalingen, optische tekenherkenning of andere wetenschapsgebieden waarbij u toegang nodig heeft tot grote hoeveelheden tekst, kunt u contact met ons opnemen. We raden u aan hiervoor materiaal uit het publieke domein te gebruiken, en kunnen u misschien hiermee van dienst zijn.
- + Laat de eigendomsverklaring staan Het “watermerk” van Google dat u onder aan elk bestand ziet, dient om mensen informatie over het project te geven, en ze te helpen extra materiaal te vinden met Zoeken naar boeken met Google. Verwijder dit watermerk niet.
- + Houd u aan de wet Wat u ook doet, houd er rekening mee dat u er zelf verantwoordelijk voor bent dat alles wat u doet legaal is. U kunt er niet van uitgaan dat wanneer een werk beschikbaar lijkt te zijn voor het publieke domein in de Verenigde Staten, het ook publiek domein is voor gebruikers in andere landen. Of er nog auteursrecht op een boek rust, verschilt per land. We kunnen u niet vertellen wat u in uw geval met een bepaald boek mag doen. Neem niet zomaar aan dat u een boek overal ter wereld op allerlei manieren kunt gebruiken, wanneer het eenmaal in Zoeken naar boeken met Google staat. De wettelijke aansprakelijkheid voor auteursrechten is behoorlijk streng.

AUTOGRAPHS.

- 396 HENRY VI. Two most curious Historical Documents of the reign of Henry VI.; the first, a remonstrance in the form of a Letter, addressed to the King, and the Archbishop of Canterbury, by the Duke of York, and the Earls of Warwick and Salisbury in 1455. The identical Letter referred to in Parliament as having been intentionally kept back from the King, and thereby causing the Battle of St. Albans.

"But all the blame was put upon the Duke of Summerset, Thomas Thorp, baron of the eschequer, and William Joseph esquier, the king's collaterall companion: because that they, upon malicious purpose, kept a certeine letter from the kings knowledge, and would in no wise suffer it to be delivered unto him," &c. HOLINSHED.

The second, a very full Letter, from John Stodeley, to Lord ———, dated from London, 19th January

(1454) containing most curious particulars of the state of parties at the time.

“ As touchyng thythings, please it you to wite that at the Princes comyng to Wyndesore, the Duc of Buck. toke hym in his armes and presented hym to the kyng in godely wise besechyng the kyng to blisse hym; and the kyng yave no man answer. Natheles the duk abode stille with the Prince by the kyng. And when he coude no maner answer have, the queene come in and toke the prince in hir armes and presented hym in like forme as the duke hade done desiring that he shuld blisse it; but all their labor was in veyn; for they departede thens without any answer or countenance, savyng onely that ones he lokede on the Prince and caste down his eyen ayen without any more.” “ The duke of Somerset hath espies goyng in every lordes hous of this lande; som gone as freres, som as shipmen taken on the see, and som in other wise, which reporte unto hym all that thei kan see or here touchyng the seid Duke. And therefore make gode watche and beware of such espies.” Compare the first of these Extracts with the reports which were spread abroad on the birth of the Prince, Edward, as stated by Hall and Holinshed.

* * The subjoined note is a part of what Mr. Ord has written in the beginning of this curious and most important Manuscript.

"The following MS. is a Chartulary relating to the Estates of the Lord John de Vallibus or Vaux. It was not unusual for our ancient Nobility to enter their Charters and other Evidences belonging to their Estates in Chartularies or Register Books, but unfortunately very few of the more ancient of these Chartularies are now extant. Mr. Astle had an old transcript of a Chartulary, made by order of Edmund Earl of Lancaster, anno 1289. This Chartulary above mentioned, and the present book are the OLDEST EVIDENCE BOOKS RELATING TO THE ESTATES OF OUR ANCIENT NOBILITY THAT HAVE AS YET BEEN DISCOVERED. The greatest part of this Chartulary was compiled before the year 1288, under the direction of the Lord John de Vallibus or Vaux."
